

You are invited to attend the exhibition opening of
ROOTS IN CALIFORNIA: CONCEPTS OF HOME
Sunday, March 27th, 3:00 – 5:00 pm

The exhibition focuses on the complex definition of home by examining the oral histories of Mexicans and Mexican Americans who lived at Rancho Los Cerritos between the 1890's and 1930's and comparing them with five stories of Mexicans and Mexican Americans currently living in Southern California.

Visitor Center Gallery
Rancho Los Cerritos
4600 Virginia Rd.
Long Beach, CA 90807

Ample Free Parking

RSVP on the Museum's website www.rancholoscerritos.org or by emailing rancho@rancholoscerritos.org

Viewing of the exhibition will be timed. Use of masks is encouraged.

In addition to enjoying the exhibition itself, you'll have an opportunity to meet and greet some of the exhibition participants.

There will also be tours of the adobe, music and outdoor art activities for the whole family

Food and drink will be available for purchase.

This exhibition is funded in part by:

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

Exhibition related Education Program, *Long Ago Long Beach:
An Artful Storytelling Adventure* sponsored by:

Bess J. Hodges
Foundation

Exhibition related Public Programming sponsored by:

RANCHO
LOS CERRITOS

Rancho Los Cerritos Hours:
Closed Monday and Tuesday,
Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, 1:00 – 5:00 pm,
Saturday, 10:00am – 5:00pm,
Sunday, 1:00- 5:00pm

www.rancholoscerritos.org